Origin appoints local representative to build strong ties with the community

Origin Energy Limited, Australia's leading integrated energy company, has appointed Lisa Glastonbury as its Community Relations Advisor for Origin's Uranquinty Power Station and LPG facilities in Wagga Wagga.

Origin's Plant Manager for the Uranquinty Power Station, Mr Matt Hallam, said "Lisa's focus will be to work with neighbours and the broader community to support and generate positive outcomes for the local area".

"This role is very much about listening to our community and ultimately delivering on our commitments to ensure that we provide a valuable and positive contribution through partnerships with the community," said Mr Hallam.

Lisa has considerable experience in working with communities as a Landcare Facilitator and has spent the last ten years building great relationships and managing on ground environmental projects in the Kyeamba Valley near Wagga.

She particularly enjoys working with rural communities to explore positive local opportunities and will be putting into place a number of new initiatives to support and benefit the communities in which Origin operates.

Lisa is a local, having lived, been educated and worked in Wagga Wagga for most of her life. She has strong community links through her sporting, volunteering and environmental interests in the Riverina region.

"I am looking forward to meeting with locals and introducing some new ideas and approaches to Origin's business in Uranquinty and Wagga Wagga" said Lisa Glastonbury.

Lisa will be based at the Uranquinty Power Station and can be contacted on 02 6927 0109.

About Origin Energy

Origin Energy is Australasia's leading integrated energy company focused on gas and oil exploration and production, power generation and energy retailing.

Listed in the ASX top 20 the company has approximately 4,000 employees, is a leading producer of gas in eastern Australia, is the largest owner and developer of gas-fired electricity generation in Australia and is a leading wholesaler and retailer of energy. The company services more than 3.5 million electricity, natural gas and LPG customers across Australia, New Zealand and the Pacific. Origin's strategic positioning and portfolio of assets provide flexibility, stability and significant opportunities for growth in the ever changing energy industry. Through Australia Pacific LNG, its 50:50 incorporated joint venture with ConocoPhillips, Origin is developing one of Australia's largest CSG to LNG projects based on Australia's largest CSG reserves base.

In New Zealand, Origin is the major shareholder in Contact Energy, the country's leading integrated energy company, operating geothermal, thermal and hydro generation facilities and servicing electricity, gas and LPG customers across both the North and South islands. Origin also operates several oil and gas projects in New Zealand and is one of the largest holders of petroleum exploration acreage in the country.

Origin has a strong focus on ensuring the sustainability of its operations, is the largest green energy retailer in Australia and has significant investments in renewable energy technologies.
